

The Clocks, Scientific & Musical Instruments Auction

1st February 2019

Viewing:

Tuesday 29th - 9am-5pm

Wednesday 30th - 9am-5pm

Thursday 31st - 9am-5pm

Friday 1st - 9am-10.30am

Lot 1405

A 19TH CENTURY SCOTTISH LONGCASE CLOCK BY J CAMERON & SON OF KILMARNOCK

19TH CENTURY SCOTTISH MAHOGANY LONGCASE CLOCK,

two train eight day movement, the painted enamel dial with Roman numerals and allegorical figures to spandrels representing England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, inscribed J Cameron & Son of Kilmarnock, the dial arch painted with a scene from the Lady of the Lake, contained in a mahogany case with waisted body, approximately 235cm high

Condition Report

Case generally good, light to medium wear consistent with age.

one or two paintlosses to face, tarnished but generally good. Appears to be working order