A 19TH CENTURY CHINESE CERAMIC CIRCULAR PLAQUE

19TH CENTURY CHINESE CERAMIC CIRCULAR PLAQUE, painted with figures in mountainous landscape scenery, set into a carved wood table frame with rectangular plinth, 61cm diameter

Provenance: A Private Scottish Collector

There is no visible evidence of serious damage or restoration to the ceramic panel, only marginal rubbing to the painting in parts, further images have been added. The frame around the panel has been formed in five sections, they have separated a little, and there is one very small triangular section that is missing. One section of the wood frame has a crack, again shown in added image.

61cm diameter visible plaque

73.5cm diameter overall

49cm high
